Photographs of Tonnerre de Brest, the American-style football team of Sister City, Brest, France

By Juliette Villard

View an exhibit of books that were donated to the Children's Wing of the Brest Hospital by generous Denver residents in 1948-1949.

There will also be a showing of historic photos of post-war Brest, France.

This was the beginning of the sister city relationship between Brest and Denver that still thrives today!

Meet the photographer, Juliette Villard!

The Sister City relationship between Denver and Brest is the second oldest in the nation!

Donations to support the Brest, France Committee Fund are welcome!
